The attached Federal Income Tax data was made available on the date indicated by Assistant United States Attorney [REDACTED] Special Prosecutions Unit, Chicago. The tax returns from which the data was obtained are in a group of approximately 200 returns requested by the Task Force located in the United States Attorney's Office, Chicago. The returns were obtained by the Task Force from a list of names of hoodlum subjects obtained from the Washington, D. C. headquarters of the Task Force. 1967 returns are the latest available at this time.

b6

The ostensible purpose of the review was to determine which subjects are claiming home mortgage-interest expense deductions.

The review was made as part of a project to determine which hoodlums have obtained loans from Federal Savings and Loan Associations. Title 18, United States Code, Section 1014 covers Federal Savings and Loan Associations and prohibits making of false statements to such institutions for the purpose of influencing any action. Penalty is $5,000 fine or two years or both.

Since the purpose of the review was to merely identify subject's with home mortgages and if possible the S&L holding the mortgage, and the fact the IRS regulations prohibit disclosure of tax information,

THE ATTACHED DATA MUST NOT BE INCLUDED IN DETAILS OF ANY REPORTS SUBMITTED TO THE USA AND SHOULD ONLY BE SET FORTH UNDER ADMINISTRATIVE DATA.

The "Chicago Daily News", Red Dart Edition, dated 11/25/64, p.1, col. 1, contained an article captioned "FROM THE WARREN REPORT-RUBY'S CHICAGO LIFE: A BAFFLING PICTURE", reflecting that FBI agents tracing JACK RUBY's West Side background questioned dozens of Chicagoans ranging from hoodlums to respected businessmen and political figures.

The story of the Jekyll-Hyde personality, as others saw him, is told in fascinating detail in the full report of the Warren Commission, now made public.

The commission concluded that whatever associations RUBY may have had they had no connection with his slaying of LEE OSWALD, accused assassin of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

FRANK (BUTCH) LOVERDE, operator of the Club 19, a Near North Side strip spot, offered his own theories on the case. Said the report:

An article contained in the "Chicago Sun Times", Chicago, Illinois, Four Star Final, dated 3/11/66, p.1, col. 1, captioned "MOBSTER SLAIN ON NORTH SIDE", reflects the following in part:

DOMINICK (HUNK) GALIANO, 52, a crime syndicate gangster was fatally wounded by three gunmen Thursday night at the doorway of a North Side loanshark headquarters.

A few minutes later, police seized another mobster, JASPER CAMPISE, 52, for questioning about the slaying.

Detectives said the assassins pumped four pistol shots into GALIANO as he ran from the office operated by CAMPISE in the rear of Marty's Snack Shop, at 837 W. North.

Two other men and a woman were arrested when they appeared at the North Ave. address a few minutes after GALIANO was murdered.

They are LEONARD FRANZONE, 52, of 8908 N. Central, Morton Grove; PHILIP FIORE, 29, of 1302 W. Ohio; and ANN CHROPTYK, 35, of 4027 W. Oakdale.

GALIANO, who lived at 14 W. Elm, was a big-time vice operator on the Near North Side in 1963. He had the Talk of the Town going for him and controlled two other strip-tease joints in partnership with another hoodlum, FRANK (BUTCH) LOVERDE.

He was raised in the [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]. He has worked all his life and has never been arrested. He has been a bartender, has operated stores, and prior to coming to the Rush Street area owned a liquor store on [REDACTED]. After selling that store he started working for JOE DE FRANCO, who was operating Gino's, 932 North Rush. He worked for DE FRANCO until last year when he took over the operation of Dino's Pizza Grotto. He is on the liquor license at Dino's Pizza Grotto and also owns the Queen which is on the second floor at that address. He had some minor problems getting liquor licenses for these two establishments primarily because the building at that address is owned by FRANK LOVERDE.

As far as he knows, Gino's is owned by DE FRANCO and even though he has heard that LOVERDE is the actual owner of Gino's, he has never doubted the fact that DE FRANCO is the true owner. LOVERDE visited Gino's when he, [REDACTED], was employed there and generally while there LOVERDE was in conversation with DE FRANCO. DE FRANCO and LOVERDE have been friends for many years apparently.

[REDACTED] is not fronting same for anyone including LOVERDE.

LOVERDE is now in California and he knows nothing regarding the allegation that he is a hoodlum. He considers LOVERDE a senior citizen and not capable of being a hoodlum.

CG T-1 stated that LOVERDE is extremely frugal and is not interested in socializing with many individuals even former hoodlum associates. LOVERDE was formerly in the NICK DE JOHN group in Chicago before ROSS PRIO took over DE JOHN's area. Since PRIO has been a hoodlum leader, LOVERDE has not been active in his group.

CG T-1 understands that FELIX ALDERISIO who has been close to LOVERDE for several years, has a piece of LOVERDE's ownership, in Gino's East Restaurant, 161 East Superior.
